Skills Credit Policies for Attending Professional CLE's

- The CLE shall be certified as an accredited State Bar presentation eligible under the mandatory continuing guidelines for Legal education; and,
- The CLE presentation shall be three hours or more in order to qualify for skill credit.
- If the CLE presentation is less than three hours but more than two, students must submit a reflective paper expressing the areas of skill development presented by the course. To better understand the areas of skill development, students should read the articles listed in the resource page to this application to appreciate the intersection of skill development, professional identity and law competencies.
- Students should not assume all CLE presentations will qualify for skill credit. The Skills committee reserves the right to review any material submitted and ensure students have received an aspect of practical training in accordance with academic standards.
- Students will be able to earn the maximum of 2 skills credit through this application process.
