Effective fall 2014, exams are considered to be in conflict if:

- the student has two exams scheduled on the same calendar day
- the student has four exams scheduled on consecutive calendar days

An exam at 9:00 am one day and 9:00 am the next day is not a conflict. An exam at 6:00 pm one day and 9:00 am the next morning is not a conflict. Students create an exam schedule when they register for courses and can only move exams according to the new policy stated above. An exam can also be rescheduled for extraordinary reasons, with the permission of the Associate Dean for Student Academic Affairs.

In order to reschedule an exam for one of the above reasons, please complete an Exam Conflict Form and submit to Law Records, Room 349. The form is located at the end of these policies. An Exam Conflict form can also be obtained from Law Records.

Accommodated students who take their exams at the Academic Resource Center must complete an exam conflict form in order to reschedule an exam. Completed conflict forms should be submitted to the appropriate staff person at the Academic Resource Center by the deadline listed below. Do not submit the form to Law Records.

To schedule a make-up exam:

1. Complete all information requested on the Exam Conflict Form.
2. To reschedule a day division exam, choose any make-up session from the exam schedule that occurs after the originally scheduled exam and no later than the first available 9:00 am make-up session where you do not have a conflict. To reschedule an evening division exam, choose any make-up session from the exam schedule that occurs after the originally scheduled exam and no later than the first available 6:00 pm make-up session where you do not have a conflict. Make-up exams must be scheduled after the originally scheduled exam; early exams are not permitted.
3. No signature is required from the Associate Dean for Student Academic Affairs, or a professor, to move an exam when the exams conflict due to two exams scheduled on the same calendar day or four exams scheduled on consecutive calendar days; just complete and submit the form. The signature of the Associate Dean for Student Academic Affairs is required if you request an exam be rescheduled for extraordinary reasons.
4. As a general rule, professors do not have the authority to permit students to reschedule an exam. Do not contact the professor to reschedule an exam, unless instructed to do so by the Associate Dean for Student Academic Affairs. Contacting a professor to reschedule an anonymously graded exam breaches anonymity and is a violation of the Honor Code.

Accommodated students who take their exams at the Academic Resource Center must submit their exam conflict forms by 6:00 pm on Wednesday, March 25, 2015 to the appropriate staff person at the Academic Resource Center.

Emergency Rescheduling of Exams

If you have a medical emergency the day of an exam, you must contact the Associate Dean for Student Academic Affairs or the Associate Dean for Faculty Development prior to the start of the exam in order to reschedule the exam. Documentation of the emergency is required. Do not contact the professor to reschedule the exam.

Incompletes

Incompletes (I) are to be assigned only when the Associate Dean for Student Academic Affairs has been presented with serious and compelling reasons why the student should be allowed to complete a course at a later date. These reasons are customarily medical.
