How to Access Your Textbook List

Loyola’s Bookstore offers textbooks for all courses offered at the university. Books are available for purchase (used or new) or rental, in most cases. The Bookstore website allows you to search for books by class. To do so, you will need the official class number (LAW L715-051, for example), not the call number. Before you search, it will be a good idea to have the Fall 2015 Schedule of Classes handy.

- Go to the Loyola Bookstore website and click on the “Books” tab.

- Select “Law Fall 2015” from the drop-down menu.

- For department, you will choose ‘LAW’ for most courses. If you are taking a specific LCIV (Civil) or LCOM (Common) course, then you will choose the respective department for that course.

- For course, you will select the first three digits of the course number. So, for course L 715-051, you will select 715.
• For section, you will select the last three digits of the course number. So, for course L 715-051, you will select 051.

• After you select the ‘Submit’ tab, your course textbook list will populate. You can click on each book to expand information about purchase or rental of the book.
• You can choose to buy or rent your books online. If you do so, the Bookstore will hold them for you to collect in person.

• You can also purchase the books at the Bookstore once you arrive in NOLA.

• Finally, you can obtain the book information and purchase the texts through another vendor.

• The Bookstore is located in on the first floor of the Danna Center on Loyola’s main campus. I’m happy to bring you there once you arrive! Several Bookstore representatives will be on hand to assist you with finding books, collecting orders, checking out, etc.
