Fri, Jul 30, 2004 -- CONGRATULATIONS!!
I am writing this message on Friday morning, so I assume if you are reading it you have completed taking the bar exam. Congratulations!! You have worked hard and have endured one of the most difficult tasks necessary to become a practicing attorney.
Remember to take some time to celebrate your accomplishment. In the future, after you receive your results, I would love to hear from you about what worked for you in preparation and what you could have done without. I also look forward to having many of you participate as alums on the website.
Take it easy!

Tue, Jul 06, 2004 -- Louisiana Test Takers
This is a reminder that this Sunday, July 11, Professor Bobby Harges will conduct a session on Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, and Evidence. The session will be held in room 111 from 3-6.
This will be the last Sunday session.

Thu, Jun 17, 2004 -- SATURDAY SESSION THIS WEEK
Just a reminder that Professor Wallace will discuss the La. Code of Civil Procedure section of the bar exam this SATURDAY, not Sunday, from 3-6 in room 111.

See Course Material on this site for the documents Professor Tooley referenced during her Sunday session on Code III of the La. Bar Exam.

Thu, Jun 03, 2004 -- Session this Sunday
To prepare for this Sunday, you may want to take the most recent bar exam, Code III, and bring your answer to the class to compare to Prof. Tooley's discussion about the exam. She will probably also speak about trends in the exam and good approaches to the questions.

Thu, Jun 03, 2004 -- Other Bar Prep Websites Around the Country
Some law schools provide resources, like our website, for bar exam takers and typically provide more information for the state in which they sit. For example, Ohio test takers should check out the Univ. of Dayton website, link is on the Loyola site, and D.C., Va., and Maryland testakers may find some good information at...
