
Dean Bromberger turned the meeting over to Prof. Tooley-Knobleltt as chair of the Faculty Appointments Committee who explained the process--discussion, vote on acceptability, ranking. Prof. Crusto moved and Vetter seconded accepting the committee’s report. Prof. Tooley-Knobleltt and other members of her committee presented information about the two Civil Law candidates: Erica N. Beck and Sandi S. Varnado. Following a discussion of the candidates, the faculty voted by secret written ballot to determine which candidates were acceptable as ordinary faculty. Because Varnado was the only candidate found acceptable, there was no need to rank the acceptable candidates. Dean Bromberger indicated that he would contact Varnado to make the offer.

The meeting was adjourned at 2 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Lawrence W. Moore, S.J.
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and ex officio Philip and Eugenie Brooks Distinguished Professor of Law
