IN ORDER TO ISSUE A STUDENT VISA, LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MUST HAVE EVIDENCE OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT.

Before the American Embassy will issue a student visa to study at Loyola University New Orleans, the prospective student must show evidence that the student has access to a minimum of $67,196 per academic year while in the United States. This is the minimum cost of living and studying for an international student at Loyola University New Orleans College of Law for nine months.

The person signing the Statement of Financial Support is agreeing to provide at least $67,196 per academic year for the student. An official from the bank where the funds are located must certify the sponsor's signature. If it is not certified, the statement will not be accepted.

The following documentation showing sufficient funds in U.S. dollars to cover your tuition and living expenses of $67,196 for at least nine months: You are expected to maintain financial support at this level for the duration of your program.

Financial support statement. Have your sponsor complete the form. If you are sponsoring yourself, complete only the Student's Statement section.

Letter or account statement (not more than three months old) from your or your sponsor's financial institution and/or (if salary is a source of funding) a letter from your or your sponsor's employer indicating annual salary. In addition, we accept sufficient line of credit and loan guarantees documented by a financial institution. All documents must be originals or copies certified by the issuing institution. We do not accept photocopies or faxes.
