

COMPLAINT

TO: Chief Justice Evan J. Bergeron
FROM: Stephen Student, 1L Day Division Student
RE: Tommy Tortfeasor; Prospective Honor Code Violation
DATE: 10 April 2009

Mr. Chief Justice,

I do hereby allege that I have witnessed the following relative to a prospective honor code violation by Mr. Tommy Tortfeasor:

INCIDENT

1. On Tuesday, 7 April 2009, in Professor Pine's 12:00 PM Contracts class, Mr. Tommy Tortfeasor signed the class attendance sheet for Thursday, 2 April 2009, representing himself as present for that class even though he did not attend.
2. I sit directly behind Mr. Tortfeasor and noticed that he was not in class on Thursday, 2 April 2009. When the sheet got to me on Tuesday, 7 April 2009, I also noticed that he signed the attendance sheet for 2 April 2009.
3. The following students sit near Mr. Tortfeasor and would therefore know whether he was present or not for the class in question: Ms. Lana Lowerline, Ms. Sandra St. Charles, Mr. Ben Broadway, and Ms. Danielle Dominican.

APPLICABLE RULES

4. Article IV, Section E of the Honor Code provides that: "No student shall falsify or participate in the falsification of attendance records"
5. Professor Pine's Contracts syllabus, under the section "Honor Code" provides that: "Students shall not backsign in my class. Backsigning constitutes a violation of the Honor Code and any student attempting to represent himself as present for a class he did not attend will be reported."

REQUEST

6. I would therefore respectfully request that the Honor Board conduct an investigation into this matter and, if warranted, impose appropriate sanctions.

Respectfully,

Stephen Student
1L Day Division Student