
REMARKS FROM PROVOST MARC MANGANARO, Ph.D.: Provost Manganaro mentioned that he was pleased to see that the continued work college handbook, well as the continued efforts in the Academic Success Program. The SCAS review is now complete and the university has passed it with flying colors.

DEAN’S REPORT:
• Updated Faculty handbooks are available in the dean’s suite or online http://academicaffairs.loyno.edu/faculty-handbook
• Facebook posting during Issac—students were impressed by the timely announcements and how all the faculty handled student anxiety.
• During a hurricane, we need to be aware of the “lock-down process.” If the university is on “lock-down” than all personnel need to wait for the all clear before returning to the building.
• Fundraising/Marketing: Tric Sehrt Endowed Scholarship donor has passed away and the law school is the beneficiary of the trust. Update of the Workplace Justice Grant, this grant figure was not included in the $1,092,182, the grant was for $557,000.
• Consortium agreement on Experiential Learning—we have been accepted as members to attend conference, along with 24 other law schools.
• Four Commitments: The dean explained to the faculty her four commitments for this academic year. See PowerPoint for details.
• Save the Dates/Announcements: Centennial Mass of the Holy Spirit (Thursday, 9/13 at 11:30 am), SBA Meet and Greet (Monday, 9/17 at 5 pm in the faculty library), Ross Guberman lecture (9/21 at 2 pm in room 308), Red Mass (10/1 at St. Louis Cathedral beginning at 9:15 am), and AALS Jazz Reception (1/4 at 5:30 pm in the Clinic Building).
