Loyola University New Orleans
College of Law

Minutes of Faculty Meeting
September 9, 2008

DEAN’S REPORT
• The Dean welcomed new visiting faculty members: Johanna Kalb and Gary Myers.
• To make up missed classes (due to the hurricane evacuation) the Dean suggested re-scheduling or recording lectures for students.
• The University administration did an excellent job organizing this evacuation. Arlington, TX was the site the administration used to keep informed, meeting with college deans twice daily, and communicating with faculty, staff, and students.
• Interim Provost Ed Kvet has been invited to the next faculty meeting.
• Please do not try to gain access to a law school (or university) building during an evacuation. Wait until campus security has the all clear from the administration.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
• Assoc. Dean Jumonville invited faculty to attend the presentation by renowned fitness guru Mackie Shilstone on September 23 in the window. Faculty were asked to encourage their students to attend this important event.
• Prof. John Lovett announced that the faculty will meet on Tuesday, September 16th, in LS 344, in the window for hiring talks.
• Faculty Colloquium: “The Question of Context in Intellectual Property Law,” Thursday, September 25, at 12:30 p.m. by Kali Murray of Marquette University Law School in LS 344.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: No minutes were attached.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:
None.

OLD BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS:
Prof. Mary Algero brought up the possible issue of student cheating. Some students have raised this concern with her and with the campus minister. After discussion, the Dean asked Assoc. Dean Jumonville to work with SBA and look into this issue and to bring back a report to the faculty. In the meantime the Dean suggested looking in on exam takers.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Lawrence W. Moore, S.J.
Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and ex officio Philip and Eugenie Brooks Distinguished Professor of Law
