 - i. MLK Day of Service
 - Monday, January 21st, 2019 from 8AM -3PM
 - Big day of service all over nola
 - Loyola partners with other schools
 - All kinds of projects (painting, planting, etc)
 - Loyno law would love a big group in loyno law related shirts
 - Because of scale, participants need to register by next wednesday january 16
 - Meet at UNO to bus to other locations
 - B. Special events
 - i. Barristers is March 16th at the aquarium
 - ii. Will make flyer in the next day or so for Dean Finger's approval but can start discussing/spreading the word
 - iii. Ticket prices TBD and will be a few weeks until tickets go on sale
 - iv. Probably will have a cap on tickets per person

- v. Venue has a capacity limit because we only have one floor and a set amount of food
 - vi. Alcohol: per contract, seems like cash bar but we don't know 100%
 - Been negotiating for like 4 months, Dean Finger reached out to coordinator and we are not 100% sure
 - Been an issue because there's an explicit rule that school can't buy drinks, however, we have no venue options if we eliminate a cash bar
 - Hopefully/probably 2 free drinks then cash bar
 - vii. Still working out some details
 - viii. Note: another school had issue with open stingray tank, so let's behave (shouldn't be an issue because we're on the first floor)
 - ix. There will be t-shirts
 - x. May need to open to alumni and faculty
- C. Alumni
- i. Nothing
- D. Wellness
- i. Question: 1L and 2L reps- wellness has been to food insecurity meetings on main campus, wellness will coordinate with sodexo to arrange healthy food option (ex. grain bowl pop up)
 - They will coordinate
