Additional Courses

- LAW-L876 – Conflict of Laws

Conflict of Laws is not tested in isolation; it may appear on Codes I-III and/or Torts*

- Loyola Bar Prep Courses (Available to 3L students only)

The following two courses review portions of some of the above-listed subjects that are tested on the Louisiana Bar Exam.

- LCIV-L949 – Bar Prep I: Civil Law

Fall semester only, bottom 50% required to enroll.

Focuses on preparation for the Louisiana Bar Exam. This course addresses Louisiana rules of law and analysis frequently tested on the bar. Subjects covered may include, but will not necessarily be limited to, discrete portions of Code I (Persons and Community Property), Code II (Successions), and Code III (Sales and Security Rights). In addition to a final examination, graded in-class exams will be given for each subject. All examinations will closely resemble the actual bar examination questions.

- LCIV-L950 – Bar Prep II: Civil Law

Spring semester only.

Focuses on preparation for the Louisiana Bar Exam. This course addresses Louisiana rules of law and analysis frequently tested on the bar. Subjects covered may include, but will not necessarily be limited to, discrete portions of Code III (Lease), Code II (Donations) Louisiana Torts, and Louisiana Business Entities. In addition to a final examination, graded in-class examinations will be given for each subject. All examinations will closely resemble the actual bar examination questions.
