

Transfer Information Packet

Most schools have a transfer application deadline. In addition to an application for transfer, most schools also require a letter of good standing with first year class rank, and a transcript (current through the end of the first year). Some schools require a form instead of a letter. Contact each school for specific transfer application requirements and communicate what's required from Loyola on the attached School Information Form.

Some schools have a June 1 transfer application deadline. We are not able to process letters of good standing and class rank by June 1 because grades are not due until the very end of May and class ranks are not calculated until mid-June. You should submit your transfer applications by June 1 even though the letter and transcript are not available. Transfer application deadlines are deadlines for you to submit the application, not for Loyola to submit the supporting documentation. Most law schools process first year grades well into June, so if you apply by a school's June 1 deadline the school will know supporting documentation will follow sometime later in the month.

We provide letters of good standing and any required attachments for up to five schools at no charge. There is a $25 fee for each additional school after the fifth one. The fee is to be paid by credit card at the following link:

The following is a list of steps to take to request letters of good standing/class rank and a transcript for transfer applications:

- Step One: Complete the attached School Information Form
Letters will not be processed until all of the information is provided. It is imperative that you provide an email address for each school.
- Step Two: Meet with Dean Algero
Have her sign page 2 of this packet.
- Step Three: Return Forms to Law Records
Return pages 2 and 3 to Law Records via email at lawrecords@loyno.edu.
- Step Four: Request a Transcript
You must request your transcript directly from the main campus Student Records Office via old LORA. You will need to request a separate transcript for each school you apply to.
